

Sunday – April 14 – Lake Murray Church – 10:30 am

What is the "therefore" there for in the Gospel? That's a good question. The answer will reveal the heart of the gospel. The "therefore" is there because of what God has accomplished for us. Jesus shouted, "It is finished!" Everyone in Christ should know what God has accomplished in all who trust in the finished work of Christ. A good way to refresh our memory and refresh the joy of our salvation is to read the first eleven chapters of the book of Romans.

The reason that we can be presented with the word "therefore" (Romans 12:1) is precisely because of what is explained in detail in the previous eleven chapters. The world does not have a "therefore" because the world can do nothing for us. The world's way is that we must construct our own "therefore" and what usually follows is disaster. Human history, therefore, is proved lacking. The evidence is evident.

Jesus came to accomplish what humanity cannot accomplish. And that is, to bring salvation. We are removed from this world and included in the lineage of Christ. We become sons and daughters of God. The miracle of salvation is the greatest miracle on earth today. Therefore, let us grasp God's "therefore" blessing and do all we can to bring others along with us.
