

Sunday – September 8 – Lake Murray Church – 10:30 am

Glory can come to us in many ways. There is the glory of being on the winning team. There is the glory of a winning business deal. There is simply the glory of being a winner. Glory of this world can be exhilarating. However, it is limited to this worldly realm. And it is, by nature, extremely transient. There exists a glory that exceeds all of creation and is eternal.

Jesus prayed to the Father, “And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began” (John 17:5). This is a prayer that God will answer because it is based on a reality that transcends all of creation itself. If we were not allowed a peak into eternity we would have no clue that any being could even pray such a prayer. Jesus is no mere being. Jesus is God in the flesh – the Second Person of the Trinity.

It is because no prayer of Jesus will ever go unanswered that we can now know God. We may now possess a glory that transcends this world. We can experience the glory of knowing God through Jesus Christ. All are invited to participate in the prayer of Jesus in John 17. Perhaps we can reach out to others in some way so that they too may share in the glory of knowing God through Jesus Christ.
